Miss Knoelk, Management Expert in CIA

Dorothy E. Knoelk, 52, a management and training expert of the Central Intelligence Agency, died Thursday at the National Institute of Health. She lived at 4200 Cathedral ave. nw.

Miss Knoelk

Before working for CIA Miss Knoelk was a teacher in the public schools of Michigan and Wisconsin. She started in Federal service in 1943 with the Federal Works Agency. She joined the CIA as a training officer in 1951. Miss Knoelk was nominated in 1960 for the Federal Woman's Award because of her "distinguished Federal career."

She was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1931 and received a master's degree from Columbia University in 1938.

Her mother, Luella C. Knoelk of Milwaukee, Wis., survives.
